

Bar Amber @ The Ivy Bush: it's YOUR pub

Bar Amber @ The Ivy Bush is run by the Supporters' Trust. Run by the fans, for the fans

AS YOU may know, the Supporters' Trust has taken over the running of a city centre pub. All profits from the venture will be donated to the Club.

Bar Amber @ The Ivy Bush in Clarence Place was opened for the first time ahead of County's first home match of the season against Crewe Alexandra.

Following a successful trial period, the Trust now has a permanent licence for the pub.

Bar Amber @ The Ivy Bush is run by the fans, for the fans.

The pub's opening hours are:

- Tuesday-Thursday, Sunday: 4pm-11pm

- Friday- Saturday: 4pm-1am

The pub has been redecorated in County colours and memorabilia and has 360-degree views of TV screens showing Sky Sports and BT Sport.

The Trust would like to thank directors Ryan Courtney, Bob Herrin and Mike Everett, and former director Rob Santwris, for their hard work on setting up this project.

We'd also like to thank the many County fans who have given up their time to help both with the considerable amount of work that was needed to get the pub up and running at the start of the season, and for keeping the pub running smoothly since then.

Bar Amber will be holding a family-friendly New Year's Eve party from 2pm to 2am. Children are welcome to attend. Tickets are available at the pub priced £5 for a family or £2 each.

Meet our golden ticket winners

TRUST members who sign up for the gold or platinum membership packages are entered into a golden ticket draw every month for the chance to join Trust directors in the boardroom at an away match.

Our latest winners were Dominic Hale, who gave his son Lucas an 11th birthday treat by joining us at Cheltenham Town.

Dominic and Lucas, from Rogerstone, are pictured above in the Cheltenham boardroom with Trust director Bob Herrin.

Meanwhile, Jeffrey Banfield, who lives in Margate, joined the directors in hospitality and the directors' box for our League Two fixture at Swindon Town

To be in with a chance of winning in the new year join up to the gold or platinum membership plans.

Make your Christmas all Amber

NEWPORT County AFC are hosting a Christmas Party to celebrate another year of progression at the Club.

Supporters, volunteers, and staff are invited to join the first team at the iconic Neon Venue on Saturday, December 15, for our 2018 Christmas party sponsored by Rob Santwris World of Carpets.

Mingle with County players, enjoy live music from 80s band Retro Electo, and take part in a number of Christmas-themed games and challenges including a Secret Santa Competition and Silent Auction. There will also be DJ sets and much, much more.

Doors for this event open at 7.30pm meaning Bar Amber will act as the perfect pre-event drinking spot where supporters can socialise between the final whistle of our Sky Bet League Two match versus MK Dons and the start of the Newport County AFC Christmas Party.

Tickets for this event, priced at £5, are available from Bar Amber, Newport County AFC Club Shop, The Neon, and Rob Santwris World of Carpets. Supporters are advised to purchase in advance to avoid disappointment on the night.

Corporate and Sponsors tickets and tables are available for this event. For details, please contact commercial@newport-county.co.uk.
